IT'S WHAT YOU READ.

I had a hard time last night. I was overwhelmed with sorrow. at least that is part of it. It was the same feeling I had on my last day in Palestine when I was at the Hebron cpt apartment. To see this kind of human suffering which is human made is difficult. We had walked around the neighborhood and I had for the first time see the faces of the U.S. soldiers. They are just boys. They stand like unsure jocks. They appear too scared to be arrogant. We also stopped a few house down from the apartment and met some children
